Apron Contest!

Make Aprons with an Attitude
Craft Outside the Box

Rules & Prizes:

1. Every apron must include a men's necktie somewhere in its construction.
2. Aprons will be judged by a panel of crafters and artists through CraftSanity.com.
3. Winning aprons will be featured on CraftSanity.com, in Safe Haven Ministries' newsletter (to 6,000 households), and will be displayed in a traveling show to raise awareness for Safe Haven Ministries throughout the summer of 2010.
4. All entries will be displayed at the David D. Hunting YMCA from April 30 – May 6, 2010.

Deadline is Monday, April 19, 2010

Complete your entry form and drop it off or mail it with your apron(s) to:
Safe Haven Ministries, 3501 Lake Eastbrook Blvd SE, Grand Rapids, MI 49546.

Entry fee:

There is no entry fee for this contest. To enter, you must agree to donate your apron to Safe Haven Ministries, an agency that serves abused women and children. The aprons will be sold to benefit Safe Haven's emergency shelter and support groups.

Why aprons? Why neckties?

Because they're fun. And because they make a statement.

This contest is made possible through a partnership between CraftSanity.com, a blog and podcast for those who love all things handmade, and Safe Haven Ministries, a domestic abuse agency that serves women and children in Grand Rapids, MI.

A statement about the contest will accompany each apron sold, reminding the recipient that it takes men and women coming together to end domestic abuse. The proceeds generated by the sale of the aprons will benefit Safe Haven and the women and children they serve.

It's not just a women's issue:
Together, we end domestic abuse.
